

Shirah Foy speaks to Jackson County Republican Women at a Luncheon Meeting.

Shirah Foy, daughter of Past President and OFRW and JCRW MELP Chair Sheila Foy, recently returned home from Tennessee where she had been chosen as a Field Representative to the Universities around that State by the Leadership Institute.

Shirah had returned from studying in Belgium for one (1) year and was one of 70 students chosen from a list of over 1000 to train at the Leadership Institute to help organize Conservative Student Groups at the Universities across the country.

Upon returning home, she worked as an Intern for Representative Dennis Richardson.

Shirah went to China as part of the Global Young Leaders Summit in China. This summit is put on by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council.

Shirah just turned 18 in November 07. She entered Belmont University in Tennessee in September 2008.

Jackson County Republican Women contributed $500.00 as a scholarship towards her trip to China.

JCRW is proud to participate in her goals.
